*The following areas are also discussed with the resident and her assigned Counselor: Legal, Health (both physical & emotional), Family Concerns, Career Goals, and Continuing Care / Aftercare Plan (s).

STATEMENT OF MUTUAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSABILITIES

"Your decision to enter the Women's Recovery Home, and our decision to admit you constitute an agreement, with rights and responsibilities for each of us".

You have the right to:

Ask about our services and about the rules and regulations which apply to you.

Examine and comment, either orally or in writing, on the record of your residency, and include a statement of your own accord in that record.

Ask about the policies and procedures which protect your privacy to the fullest extent of the law.

Discuss any problems with staff and participate in a staff conference on matters of direct concern to you.

Make suggestions on how services can be improved and register complaints directly to the staff who will discuss such concerns with the Programs Director.

You have the right to (continued):

Expect a reasonable continuity of care.

Have the opportunity to work with peers in weekly house meetings on matters that concern residents as a whole.

Terminate your residency at any time (voluntary program).

We have a right to:

Determine the nature of our services and establish the rules and regulations that apply to residents.

Keep a record of your activities as a resident, and include an appraisal of your progress in our record.

Release your record or portions of it with your informed written consent or as otherwise directed by law, and destroy your record in accordance with agency policies.

Review your activities and evaluate your progress at staff conferences, and to expect you to participate in those conferences whenever appropriate.

Expect that suggestions and complaints will be made directly to the staff prior to discussion outside of the Women's Recovery Home.

Modify our policies and procedures so as to improve the quality and continuity of your care.

Terminate your residency at the end of your contract period, or at any time during that period for cause. (e.g. disciplinary)
